MODERATOR: We have Amy Yang here and you just won 1-up. Looks like you had a couple birdies, a couple bogeys.

AMY YANG: Yeah.

MODERATOR: How was your afternoon?

AMY YANG: I think I was a little -- a little tired. I couldn't feel it, but you know, just by swinging and just wasn't feeling good.

MODERATOR: It was a long day.

AMY YANG: Yeah, it was. I mean, I had a lot of mistakes today.

MODERATOR: A lot of mistakes, but you made it through and now you advance to tomorrow.

AMY YANG: Yeah, just, I can't -- I can't wait to play tomorrow. I might be tired when I wake up because I played like 30 holes, like 30-something holes, but I guess it will be fun.

MODERATOR: How will you prepare tonight? Rest?

AMY YANG: Yeah, definitely just resting. After dinner, I'm just going to go back to the hotel and just resting.

MODERATOR: So no practice or anything?

AMY YANG: Yeah, yeah.

MODERATOR: Just rest?

AMY YANG: Yeah.

MODERATOR: Sounds good. Is there any hole that stands out today as the most important hole?

AMY YANG: I think it was --

MODERATOR: In the afternoon match.

AMY YANG: Afternoon, yeah. 14?

MODERATOR: 14, a par 4.

AMY YANG: 15.

MODERATOR: 15 birdie?

AMY YANG: Yeah.

MODERATOR: 15 birdie, most important?

AMY YANG: Yeah, I think so because --

MODERATOR: What did you do there?

AMY YANG: Because we were all square until that hole, and you know, I made birdie on the hole. I think that made me think.

MODERATOR: What club did you hit into the green?

AMY YANG: I don't remember.

MODERATOR: Do you know how long the putt was, birdie putt?

AMY YANG: Yeah, that was like five steps, so I don't know how long.

MODERATOR: Five steps?

AMY YANG: Yeah, five steps.

MODERATOR: Eighteen feet?

AMY YANG: Haeji made a good birdie on the 17. If I didn't have birdie on that hole, I might lose today.

MODERATOR: Well, congratulations.

AMY YANG: Thank you.

MODERATOR: Do you have any questions?

Q.Yeah. Amy, what do you like most about this course?

AMY YANG: This course? It's pretty tough. I mean, it was so tough this afternoon, it was so windy, but I like the wide fairways and I like the greens and it's really smooth and nice.

MODERATOR: How's the hospitality been this week with the food and everything inside the clubhouse? Have you enjoyed that?

AMY YANG: Yeah, it was really good. They had good food and, you know, like all the things was good.

MODERATOR: Perfect, thank you.

AMY YANG: Thank you.

MODERATOR: Good luck tomorrow.
